

NU – Called and Not Used

Called and Not Used (sent home or call busted)

Claiming * hours pay due to being notified my call was busted. Called for train A on // and was notified at (enter date and time notified) train had been cancelled.

Conductors

Trainmen in pool service who are called and report and, for any reason other than their own acts are released before leaving the terminal within three (3) hours after the time called to register on duty, they will be paid for four (4) hours and remain 1st out; if release after three hours from the time called to register on duty, they will be paid a minimum day's wages in class of service for which called and be placed last-out; no pay shall be allowed if they are notified before leaving place of residence that they are not needed.