

CO – Company Business

The Company Business claim is used to claim lost wages for being marked off to attend Rules Class, Training Classes, Witness for Company in an Investigation, whenever your marked off per the company you are entitled compensation.

There are differences between Engineers Compensation and Conductors Compensation.

CONDUCTORS:

Conductors are due what they missed for being marked off company business.

ENGINEERS:

Engineers since the Implementation of the Predictable Work Schedule (PWS) system.

Engineers in self- sustaining pools engaged in company business will receive the trip rate of their assignment or a $350 `Company Business' payment, whichever is greater, for the first 24 hours they perform company business beginning from when they otherwise would have been called. For each succeeding 24 hour period, or portion of the 24 hour period, they are engaged in company business engineers will receive the trip rate of their assignment.